SATURDAY MORNING OCT 27, 1860

The SUNDAY DEMOCRAT—Merchants and advertisers generally will obligate us by handing in their papers as early as convenient for tomorrow's issue. The circulation of the Sunday Democrat far exceeds that of any other issue in the city. It is the best medium through which merchants and traders can present their cards to the public. Besides the regular subscribers to the Daily Democrat and to the Sunday issue, from one to two thousand extra copies are distributed by the newsboys.

BRAUNER.—Mr. Alexander Randall, long a resident of this city, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Judge Johnson to answer to a charge of bigamy.
Mr. Randall has always been a respectable character. Mr. Randall was married a few months ago to Miss Margaret Cheatham, a respectable young lady of New Albany, Indiana, but constant demands have been made upon him by another family in the city for their support. This came to the knowledge of the more recently married Mrs. Randall, and there have been constant troubles between them ever since. Yesterday Mrs. Margaret Randall sued out a peace bond against Mrs. Harriet Randall, who, in turn, took similar legal steps against Margaret Randall. During the investigation of the case, which were brought forward by the warrant, it transpired that Randall had been married to Harriet many years ago in Canada West, and that she had borne five children, two of whom—a boy aged about seventeen and a girl aged about nine years—are living in this city with their mother. Mrs. Harriet Randall makes other allegations of a pecuniary character against Randall, alleging that they have been separated for the last seven years. Mr. Randall is held in custody.

SCHROEDER & LAVAIL'S LIQUOR ESTAB-LISHMENT.—Among the many manufacturing establishments whose success has been the success of Louisville, that of Messrs Schrod-er & Lavail, situated on Second street, between Main and the river, is prominent, as evincing what industry and sagacity will accomplish.
The members of this firm have long been known to the commercial community as strictly honorable and energetic businessmen. Their establishment is the tangible result of their business capacity and energy.
Yesterday we struck them, and found mental and moral worth, as well as commercial success.

The second heat was closely contested, but Heenan won by another burst down the home stretch, winning the heat in 2:32. Crockett was drawn in the third heat, Heenan was easily by three lengths, in 2:35.
